

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Distinguished Woman Leader Award

Indiana ACE Women's Network is a community inclusive of all women that inspires, develops and supports women leaders to transform higher education. The organization seeks to inspire others through the recognition of outstanding women within the organization. The Distinguished Woman Leader Award is the highest honor the IN ACE Network presents.

It is intended to honor someone who:

- Advocates for women and has either pioneered or been a catalyst for change
- Champions the advancement of women in leadership roles, and been a voice for all women in Higher Education.
- Is celebrated as providing outstanding leadership to women in their institutions, field of expertise, and/or in society at large.
- Is well-known for inspirational, inclusive, innovative work on behalf of women that is outside the scope of the nominee's formal regular job description.

Nominees should be seasoned leaders in advanced stages of their careers.

Nomination letters should address the criteria listed above and be submitted by December 15th to inacenetwork@gmail.com with the subject line stating "ACE Distinguished Woman Leader Award Nomination"

All nominees will receive an official letter from the Leadership Board congratulating and confirming their nomination. The award recipient and their institution will be notified of the award following the close of nomination and review processes. The honoree is presented the award at the next annual conference.

Nominations will be reviewed by the ACE-WIN Board of Directors.
